

Privacy Policy

For Donors

School Choice Arizona will not sell, trade or share a donor's personal information with anyone else.* School Choice Arizona and any data processing company utilized by School Choice Arizona will keep donation forms & payment information at a secure location where only office staff can see them. This means that we do not tell a school or a family the identity of those who recommended a specific school or child. We consider donor information strictly confidential.

An exception to this is the donor information required regarding large donations ($5,000 or more) on IRS Form 990.*

For Parents

Contact Information: School Choice Arizona will not sell, trade, or share a family's contact information with anyone except the school listed on the scholarship application form.

Financial Information: School Choice Arizona will keep the financial information required by our application process confidential. It will be kept in a secure location to be viewed only by School Choice Arizona office staff. The calculated income rank will be viewed only by School Choice Arizona office staff, the School Choice Arizona Award Selection Committee, and any data processing company utilized by School Choice Arizona.
